VOLUME XI. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL, WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 12, 1856. NEW SERIES.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

RUFUS KING & WM. H. WATSON,
PROPRIETORS.
Under the Name and Firm of Rufus King & Co.

MILWAUKEE:
Wednesday Morning, Nov. 12.

Official Result in this County.

We were unable to obtain the full figures in time for our paper of to-day.

On Electors, the vote stands, Fremont 2,798, Buchanan 7,188, Fillmore 25.

On Congress—John F. Potter 2,879, "Potter" 6, Jackson Hadley 7,068, scattering 6.

Mr. Hadley's majority in this county is 4,129.

North Eastern Land Grant Railroad—The Chicago Interest wins after all!

The Books for subscription to the stock of the Wisconsin and Superior R. R. Co., upon which the grant of lands for the eastern railroad to Lake Superior was conferred by the late Legislature, were opened at Oshkosh on the 6th inst.

We learn from parties who returned yesterday from Oshkosh, that several changes have been brought about in the Board of Directors, by which the control of the road and the grant passes into the hands of Wm. B. Ogden, of Chicago, and the Directors and friends of the Chicago St. Paul & Fond du Lac R. R. which he represents. By the use of the necessary persuasion,—rumor goes so far as to state the actual extent of that persuasion—some of the Directors who were hitherto supposed to be favorable to railroad connections with this city were induced to resign, and leave their vacancies to be filled by the remainder of the Directors to suit themselves.

We are promised a history of the transactions of the Company thus far, by parties well posted in the matter.

Meantime it seems clear to us that the construction of the Air Line R. R. hence to Fond du Lac, becomes a matter of prime importance to Milwaukee.

Glorious New England.

The six New England States have elected a clean Republican delegation to Congress of 29 members, and next Spring the Senatorial delegation will stand eleven to one; Allen, of Rhode Island, who holds until '59, when he will get his walking papers.

New England has given Fremont the following majorities:

Maine,	25,000
Connecticut,	8,500
Vermont,	30,000
New Hampshire,	7,500
Rhode Island,	5,000
Massachusetts,	69,000
Total.	150,000

Who is ashamed to be a New Englander?—Who is ashamed to belong to the party to which New England lends her whole heart and power?

Political Pilgrims.

WHEATLAND, Mr. Buchanan's residence in Pennsylvania, has already become the Mecca of politicians and office-seekers, although the ink is hardly yet dry with which Mr. Buchanan's success was announced. The Wisconsin of yesterday, noticing the departure of Gov. BARSTOW, for the East, thus speculates as to the objects of his journey:

It is understood that ex-Gov. Barstow is on his way to Wheatland thus early, to arrange the appointments for this State; and, if Mr. Buchanan thinks his election doubtful, to give him the benefit of his experience in—supplemental returns.

Rumor ascribes other motives to Gov. BARSTOW. He is said to be an aspirant to the office of Post Master General! We hear that MR. F. K. BARTLETT, one of the newly elected Assemblymen from this city, accompanied the Governor, and that ex-Attorney General Geo. B. SMITH, is expected to follow after.

PRIEST RIDDEN NEW ENGLAND.—The result of the Presidential election in New England proves that a majority of her people have bowed their necks to the dominion of religious fanaticism.—Washington Union.

So says the Union, the organ of the "National Democracy," in speaking of the result of the Presidential election. In view of the fact, that the entire, unbroken CATHOLIC vote of this country has been polled for BUCHANAN and BRECKINRIDGE, the champions and candidates of Slavery extension, Fillibusterism, and other iniquities, we think that the less the Union says about the "dominion of religious fanaticism," the better. Every other religious denomination in this Republic was more or less divided on the question of the Presidency. The Catholics alone voted in mass, like a flock of sheep, for Slavery and sham Democracy. Where, then, was the "religious fanaticism?"

SUPERFLUOUS FALSEHOODS.—The News comforts itself, under the mortifying defeat in this district, by the following reflection:

When the Sentinel clique sold out Durkee four years ago, and Spooner two years ago, we carried this district:

If any respectable authority had made such a charge, we might think it worth while to contradict it. But with only the News for voucher, it neither needs, nor deserves the compliment of a denial.

Speaking of the result in Illinois too, the News delights in the fact that "the Sentinel yelped over the defeat of Douglass." As the Sentinel has not even alluded to the subject, one wonders why the News should have uttered such a palpable falsehood. Doubtless it is the force of habit.

Voting here and Elsewhere.

The total vote in Detroit at the late election was 5,766.

The total vote in Rochester, New York, was 6,402.

The total vote in our city of Milwaukee was about 7,500.

It is evident enough that however either of our sister cities may beat us in population, they can't begin with us in voting.

HOME.

When Tom Moore wrote his famous "Sweet Home."—Mil. News.

When Tom Moore wrote his famous "Sweet Home," he was not aware John Howard Payne had written it before him.—Fond du Lac Union.

How should TOM MOORE, a "furriner" and an Irishman, be expected to know anything of the soil, when the K. N. News, a full-blooded Native American organ, was not aware of it?

The Sentinel and the Gains.

The Sentinel says this State has given ten or fifteen thousand majority for Fremont. Will some believer in the Sentinel, bet on ten thousand?—News, of yesterday,

The Sentinel, though not given to betting, will invest a trifle, or so, on that contingency. Say one of "Uncle Ben's" best hats? How is it, Mr. District Attorney—yea, or nay?

The Free State Air Line!

As soon as the Railroad is finished to Grand Haven, Michigan, and the powerful ferry boats put on the route across the Lake, we shall have an Air-line route from east to west—from the Mississippi to the Atlantic—running all the way on the Free Soil of States not disgraced by majorities for Buchanan—of four States which have given Fremont and Freedom 175,000 majority.

☞ The Southern vote, it is thus seen, is about as SECTIONAL as the Northern.—N. Y. Express.

The shoe pinches a little, does it? The South, after all the toadying of the Express, and all that Fillmore "has done" for Slavery, treats Doughfaces as they deserve to be treated—first uses, and then discards them.—Albany Evening Journal.

INDIANA.—The Legislature elected stands as follows;—House, 63 dem., 35 reps.; Senate, 28 dem., 24 reps., 1 American.

From Our New York Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Nov 5

The battle is over, and altho' the smoke is not yet sufficiently cleared away to ascertain the precise result, it is certain that the candidate of Freedom is not elected by the popular vote.—Pennsylvania and New Jersey have dishonored the name and principles which are the only sure foundation and defence of Free Commonwealths, and gone for those of the Cincinnati Platform.—New England in solid phalanx—glorious, educated, moral and liberty-loving New England—has gone as one man for Fremont and Freedom; and our great State too, despite the corrupt voice of its large cities and the mean and sneaking policy of its Fillmore partisans, is most articulate for the same glorious cause. The agricultural population has spoken its honest and uncorrupt voice, and such voices must prevail. The battle for the present is lost, but not our cause. That cannot fail, while love and justice and mercy are attributes of God. It were idle to speculate upon what may be the issue of this election; alike unavailing and misplaced at this moment would be any homilies upon the scenes which this election has witnessed—the corruption it has encouraged, if not engendered; the profligacy of public men, the venality of floating voters, and the daring defiance of law and contempt of even the appearance of decency, or consistency, on the part of multitudes who yet profess to have some regard to character and certainly must need for their own interests the sanction of authoritative law. In calmer moments, perhaps, it may be a duty to consider these things and whereunto they tend; but now is not the hour.

Our weather yesterday was damp and rainy for part of the day. This morning we have bright skies and cool, bracing air—for happily man's passions and sins cannot obscure the face of the sun, nor change the blessed air of Heaven into poison. A kind Providence overrules all, and can and constantly does educe good out of evil.

To-day, on going into the ordinary resorts of business, a stranger could never believe that yesterday a whole nation was busy about its political rights and political rulers—so busy and wrought up that all other interests seemed, for the moment, in abeyance. Yet in the midst of this hot strife, as before and now after it, the pulse of public and of private credit beat as temperately as in the calmest season; the daily course of affairs of all sorts went smoothly on; and so far, no shock of any kind was perceptible in the framework of society—strong evidence this of the universal trust in the stability of our institutions, whosoever may be the persons elected to superintend them. Whether this trust, so full and so unsuspecting, is wise, may, I fear, in view of what we have just witnessed, be seriously questioned—for there is often as much danger in over confidence, as in the lack of it, and the dictum will still be found true—in respect of our republic, as of all that have gone before it—that "the price of Liberty is eternal vigilance," and they who blindly confide, and because things have heretofore gone on without injurious shocks, believe they will continue always to go likewise, must one day awake amidst ruin and overthrow. But I said I would not moralize, and and therefore break off.

We are within four weeks now of the session of Congress—for it is to meet on the first of the next month—and what a session it will be, if as the indications now are, the House of Representatives are to have the decision of the Presidential question. Twice heretofore in our annals has the House of Representatives chosen the President—in 1801, when Mr. JEFFERSON was elected over Aaron Burr, and in 1825, when JOHN Q. ADAMS was chosen over Jackson and Crawford. Certainly, the result in each of these cases was the best and wisest that could have been reached—so at least, as it seems to me, history has pronounced. There is encouragement therefore in the past that if called upon, next February, for a decision of the grave question, which the people in their aggregate capacity could not decide, the House of Representatives will not disappoint the hopes of Freemen, nor fall below the great occasion which makes them, for the time, the most important electoral body in the world.

Aid for Kansas.

For the Sentinel.

The Treasurer of the Emigrant Aid Society, State of Wisconsin, acknowledges the receipt of one hundred and twenty three dollars, raised by the ladies of Mackford and vicinity, Marquette county, at a festival held at the house of Mrs. McDonald, and to be expended for provisions and clothing for the Free State sufferers in Kansas.

At the request of the ladies it was suggested by the messenger who brought the above, that an appeal should be made to the Ladies of Wisconsin, to induce them to make similar efforts in other parts of the State.

We wish an abler and more influential pen (and not one only, but many) were engaged in writing such an appeal, for it is the cause of religion and humanity.

Our fathers, our brothers, nay our sisters even, who within one short year have left us with the exalted hope and joyful anticipation of finding a home and plenty in the prairies and groves of Kansas, and who were willing to sacrifice present comfort in the hope of securing Freedom to that beautiful country, and a future home and liberty to the thousands which are to follow them, are now suffering for the necessaries of life. Sick, and in many instances almost houseless, some are literally starving, while hundreds of families are living on green corn and green pumpkins, without a morsel of bread or meat.

The general agent of the National Aid Society, who has just returned from a tour of observation in Kansas, enumerates over two hundred families, "many of whom are naked below their knees, bare headed and bare footed, and women so destitute of clothing that they are ashamed to be seen."

Column after column of your paper, Messrs. Editors, could be filled with narratives of the sufferings of individuals and families, several of whom are from our own State, but it is enough for the warm hearted, sympathetic females of Wisconsin, to know that suffering exists, and that their efforts can relieve it.

It may be well to say that there are no salaries nor office rents, nor other expenses attending the receipt and disbursement of money by the State Aid Society. All the labor is performed gratuitously, and donors may be assured that their entire contributions go directly to aid the sufferers in Kansas.

T. B. MASON, Treasurer,
State Emigration Aid Society, Milwaukee.

Southern Wisconsin R. R.

We learn that the work on this road—the Southwest branch of the Milwaukee & Mississippi R. R.—is progressing finely. The bridge across the Rock River at Janesville, which is altogether the most extensive work of the kind in the State—will be completed this week, so that the cars may cross to the Depot on the west side, and carry the iron beyond. The grading is all done, and the track ready for the iron 32 miles west of Janesville, and the work of laying the iron will be pushed forward with despatch.

By this road, and the Galena branch, our city will have ready communication with Galena and the Mississippi at Dubuque sometime next summer. Speed the day!

Fremont Re-Nominated.

The Republican clubs of New York city met at their head-quarters on Thursday, and nominated FREMONT for the presidential race in 1860. There seems to be a pretty general feeling in favor of the Colonel's re-nomination, but none can say what four years may bring forth.

Delaware.

The returns are complete. Buchanan pockets the little State by 1,850 plurality over Fillmore. Whitely, Democrat, is elected to Congress by 2,000 majority, and the State Legislature is also Democratic.

(From the N. Y. Times)

"It is rumored that Mr. Buchanan does not intend to undertake the occupancy of the White House alone. Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Result in Manitowoc.

MANITOWOC, Nov. 9.

EDS. SENTINEL:—The Buchanan majority in this county is about 750. The day was stormy and at least 100 of our voters were not out in the back towns, and in Meeme, Franklin and Maple Grove, they drove Republicans away from the polls, and by threats and blows prevented some fifty Republicans from voting.

Two Irishmen in Maple Grove were badly injured for voting for Fremont. An Irishman in my employ was threatened with his life if he voted for Fremont. He did vote for him, and they have as yet only threatened to do so. That job had better be postponed indefinitely. There were at least three hundred illegal votes cast in this county for Buchanan. Platt, our candidate for Senator, runs ahead of his ticket over four hundred.

Honest Buchanan men, who could not go Temp. Clark, and who went into the country towns to work for Platt, were in every case but one, obliged to leave the polls for fear of their lives; and many were compelled to vote for Clark that otherwise would have voted against him. This town (Manitowoc) has done her duty nobly, giving Fremont 106 majority, with at least 75 illegal votes against us.

That we are beat here bad enough anyhow is beyond question, but the means used to do it, by such a majority, is what we don't fancy. All the statements here made can be substantiated.

THE NEW CABINET.—The New York papers have already settled Mr. BUCHANAN'S Cabinet for him. The following is the Herald's list. It is a poor one:

Secretary of State—Isaac Toucey, of Connecticut.

Secretary of the Navy—John Slidell, of Louisiana.

Secretary of War—H. A. Wise, of Virginia, or H. Ward, of S. C.

Secretary of the Interior—Jesse D. Bright, of Indiana, or Charles Stuart, of Michigan.

Attorney General—James C. Vandyke, of Pennsylvania.

Postmaster General—John E. Thomson, of New Jersey.

A FORGERY.—The Sham Democratic papers are making a great ado over a letter, purporting to come from Secretary Marcy, in the shape of a reply to the letter of Gov. Grimes of Iowa, to President Pierce, asking protection for the citizens of that State who had gone to Kansas.—The following note shows the document to be a rank forgery:

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4, 1856.

SIR: I have just seen in the Evening Post of yesterday,, a letter purporting to be written by W. L. Marcy, Secretary of State, and addressed to Gov. Grimes of Iowa. Mr. Marcy authorizes me to state that no such letter was written by him, nor any such letter ever issued from the Department of State. Please make this statement in your paper.

Very respectfully yours,
J. A. THOMAS, Assistant Secretary.

Items from the Pinery.

From the Stevens Pt. Pinery, Nov. 6.

Cranberries are so scarce that the dealers charge us $2,50 per bushel.

Good working oxen bear a good price. The loggers are fitting out for the winter's campaign among the Pines.

We had a snow flurry here on Monday evening. Weather still moderate. Most of the lumber has gone below Point Bas, where it will probably tie up for the winter.

Cash sales at the Stevens Point Land Office for October, $10,078,28. By Land Warrant, $90,000. All these sales are in the timbered districts N. W. from this village.

John R. Mitchell's new Grist Mill at Springville makes its first motion on Monday the 17th. It will grind everything but axes, and the faces of the poor. When is the Stevens Point Grist Mill going to start? Ask Dr. Morrison.

One year ago, there were less than 300 votes cast at the Stevens Point precinct. This fall, with nearly 100 voters absent from the precinct on the river, we polled 447. Increase of electors, in one year, nearly 250; the increase of population within the time, must be about 800.

A Singular Political Wager.

BOSTON, Friday, Nov. 7.

Major Benjamin Perley Poore, the late Fillmore candidate for Congress in the Sixth District, arrived in this city this afternoon, with his wheelbarrow and barrel of apples, which he had wheeled all the way from Newburyport, a distance of thirty-six miles, in two and a half days. The job was in fulfillment of a wager with Col. Burbank, the Fremont State Senator elect, that Fillmore would get more votes in Massachusetts than Fremont. The Major, wheeling his apples, was accompanied up State street, about two o'clock, by the Fillmore Clubs of Boston and Charleston, a military company, and a mounted cavalcade of citizens. The novelty of the performance attracted many thousands of the people, and the Major was greeted with tremendous and tumultuous applause from all sides. He delivered the apples to Col. Burbank on the steps of the Tremont House, where both gentlemen delivered congratulatory speeches, mounted on the barrel. Ten thousand people were present.

The Vote in Connecticut.

We have received the full vote from every town in the State excepting Bethlehem, Kent, New Fairfield and Redding, and from the two latter we have the majorities. The result is as follows:—Fremont 42,196; Buchanan 35,000; Fillmore 2,464. Fremont's plurality, 7,696—majority over Buchanan and Fillmore, 5,232.

Estimating the full vote in the towns not heard from, and where only pluralities are given, by the vote cast last Spring, it appears that about 80,000 votes have been cast. Of these Fremont will have about 42,500; Buchanan 35,000; Fillmore, 2,500—a Fremont plurality of over 7,500, and a majority over Buchanan and Fillmore of over 5,000.

The whole vote cast last spring was 66,715, an increase of over thirteen thousand votes. Minor had 26,008; Ingham 32,704; Welles, 6,760; Rockwell, 1,251.

We annex the recapitulation by counties:

For the Daily Sentinel.

To Wisconsin.

All hail Wisconsin! Freedom's Flag
Waves proudly o'er thy wide domain,
And Fremont's shouts, from hill and crag
Proclaim they've burst from Slavery's chain.

Full many a noble heart beats high,
In welcome to their glorious voice,
New England's hills roll back the cry,
And noble Hudson's banks rejoice.

Ohio, too, from her free fields,
And Iowa and Michigan,
And Illinois, her welcome yields,
And take their place in Freedom's van.

But where is Penn's time-honored State
Ranges she not among the Free?
Founded in Justice, once so great,
Alas! she bows to Slavery.

The great and good, from Heaven look down,
And weep to see their children's shame,
They would have borne the Martyr's crown,
Ere they had soiled their Founder's Fame.

Old Massachusetts Forever!

The Boston Atlas comes to us all ablaze with glory over the result in the old Bay State. We copy its headings, and its brief announcement beneath:

MASSACHUSETTS SPEAKS!

"FROM HER GREEN MOUNTAINS TO THE SEA,
ONE VOICE SHALL THUNDER WE ARE FREE!"

"There is Concord, and Lexington, and Bunker Hill, and there they will remain forever."

FREMONT'S PLURALITY IN THE OLD BAY STATE.

65,538!

HIS MAJORITY OVER ALL OTHERS.

46,373!

An Entire Fremont Congressional Delegation!

A UNANIMOUS FREMONT SENATE!

An Overwhelming Fremont Majority in the House of Representatives!

A Fremont Executive Council!

FREMONT COUNTY OFFICERS ELECTED IN EVERY COUNTY OF THE STATE!

A CLEAN SWEEP.

Below we give the returns of the votes cast in this State Tuesday, in nearly three hundred towns. They exhibit the most overwhelming demonstration of popular sentiment ever witnessed at a State election, and a triumph of political principle without a parallel. The Fremont and Dayton ticket has been chosen by a plurality which the towns to be received will swell to something like SEVENTY THOUSAND, and a majority over all others of at least FIFTY THOUSAND. An entire Republican delegation has been chosen to Congress. Every member of the Senate is Republican, and every member of the House, except about a baker's dozen, is the same, securing the re-election of Hon. Charles Sumner to the United States Senate, by a nearly unanimous vote.

Old Cayuga Forever.

The Banner County of the State!!

We are justified in claiming that Old Cayuga, the home of Gov. Seward, is the Banner County of the State. The majority her electors piled up for Fremont, we think, is unprecedented in any county with the same population. Every town has given a majority for Fremont over both his opponents.

Fremont's majority in the County is 5,225 over Buchanan. His majority over Fillmore is 5,115. Majority over both, 3,300. Well done, Cayuga.—Auburn (N. Y.) Advertiser.

DIED.

In Summit, Waukesha Co., Wis., Nov. 2d, Mr. GEORGE N. COBB, aged fifty years and eleven months, with disease of the lungs in its severest form. Funeral services by Rev. E. J. Montague. The remains were followed to the grave by a large concourse of friends and the first settlers in the vicinity.

With a naturally strong constitution and vigorous frame, with a shrewd and discriminating mind, instinct with the principles of humanity and justice, and a sterling integrity of character, which enabled him to meet all the trying emergencies of the hardest times with an unwavering rectitude—the deceased was well calculated in the Providence of human affairs to be a Pioneer, and such he was.

We should be unjust to his memory if we did not give him a place among those who live to labor, and whose every labor and privation is a sacrifice for those who come after them, to enjoy the fruits of their toils.

On the day of the 20th anniversary of the landing of the deceased and his little family in the rude harbor of Milwaukee, his spirit calmly passed from earth.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.

THE great and principal characteristics of DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR consist:

1st. Of its never-failing and unique property, as soon as applied to any external injury, TO CHECK INFLAMMATION instantly, and rapidly to reduce it. This feature constitutes its great power to alleviate the pain of burns and scalds, and of other painful diseases, in so incredibly short a space of time, and as will appear from the few testimonials hereunto annexed. Every intelligent mind is fully aware that, in all cases of external injury, the pain is produced by inflammation of the injured parts; and, therefore, if you remove the cause the effect must cease.

2d. Its purificative properties neutralize the poison that may lurk in the system, and will, when applied to the sores, draw rapidly all impure matter to the surface, and eject it—hence the great discharge it produces from sores occasioned by burns—and when applied to old, inveterate sores, Salt Rheum, or other cutaneous diseases.

Each box of GENUINE DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR has upon it a Steel Plate Engraved Label with the signature of C. V. CLICKENER & CO., proprietors, and HENRY DALLEY, manufacturer. All others are counterfeit.—Price 25 cents per box.

TO CONSUMPTIVES,
AND OTHER INVALIDS.

IN COMPLIANCE with the repeatedly expressed wish of numbers of his patients, Dr. CALVIN M. FITCH has made arrangements to visit Milwaukee before his return East, and will have rooms at the WALKER HOUSE.

Dr. FITCH will be at Milwaukee from Monday Nov. 9th, to Saturday evening, Dec. 6th, where he may be consulted daily, (Sabbath excepted) for

Pulmonary Consumption, Asthma and Chronic Bronchitis,

In the treatment of which, the employment of

Appropriate Constitutional and Mechanical Remedies, and Medicinal Inhalations,

Has given him a degree of success which can never attend a partial, imperfect treatment of these obstinate and dangerous diseases, and from his ample experience, Dr. FITCH feels himself fully justified in asserting that, when disease is so far advanced that the above means fail, no other course can afford relief.

CATARRH,

Either in the head or throat, which the use of local applications by means of throat and nasal syringe, together with the absence of necessary general measures, enables him to relieve in cases oftentimes of years standing.

He may be consulted for DYSPEPSIA and Chronic Inflamation of the Stomach and Bowels, and for FEMALE DISEASES, which the employment of appropriate mechanical appliances enables him to treat with almost uniform success.

Dr. FITCH will be assisted by his associate, Dr. J. W. SYKES, who will be at Milwaukee on the latter portion of each week, when Dr. FITCH will be compelled to be absent. nov11d621d1w&wtf

BERLINER & BRUNO,

Never Fails in Dyspepsia.

SALEM, N. J., Feb. 24, 1855.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir—I take great pleasure in sending you these few lines, recommending to all afflicted with that terrible disease, Dyspepsia, the valuable properties of Hoofland's German Bitters. For a long time I was sorely afflicted with that disease, and in expectation of obtaining some relief, used a great many preparations highly recommended for that purpose, but all in vain.—Being advised to try the German Bitters, I reluctantly purchased a bottle. I felt so much relieved by the use of that, that I obtained more of it, and now, after taking five bottles, I feel and consider myself a healthier man than I have for the last ten years.

Yours, respectfully,
ANDREW YOURSON.

A NEW ARTICLE OF MERCHANDIZE.

HAVING commenced the manufacture of Solid Tubing with Wyckoff's Patent Tubing Machine, at Rich's Mills, in Horicon, from 3¼ inch pine and cedar scantling, the undersigned will fill all orders from Merchants, Lumber Dealers, and Farmers, for water conductors, water pipes, and underground leaders from fountains, spring and artesian wells, also, tubing for chain, rotary, and other kinds of pumps, made in sections eight feet long, with jointed ends, both air and water tight. This article is far superior to either lead or iron, free from rust and poisonous oxydes. Hardware Merchants and Lumber Dealers are rapidly furnishing themselves with this saleable kind of tubing. As one machine, and one man and a boy can manufacture 2,000 feet per day, I can furnish the solid tubing at about the same rates as the old kind of spliced tubing.

I own the Right for

Wyckoff's Patent Tubing Machine,

For Wisconsin and North-Western Michigan, and will sell only a few Counties if applied for soon.

Tubing shipped to order by Railroad at any time.

Please address,   S. P. GILBERT,
